

Job title	Guardian ad Litem (GAL)
FLSA Status	Exempt
Employment Status	Full-time
Reports to	GAL Supervisor

Job purpose

Guardians ad Litem (GALs) will provide support and crucial input to the legal team and volunteers in order to allow for effective advocacy for a child’s best interests. GALs must be able to work both collaboratively and independently. Internal collaboration consists of work with staff attorneys and supervising attorneys, as well as working with a team of paralegals, other social workers, volunteers, and other staff. GALs must also be able to work independently, managing their own responsibilities with respect to their cases.

GALs are expected to remain current on emerging research, best practices, and new information in the areas of family law, juvenile law, child advocacy, child development, abuse and neglect, trauma, and other related areas. In the course of their advocacy for a child’s best interests, GALs must possess initiative in seeking out creative and sound solutions to any issues affecting a child’s best interests. GALs must have a strong commitment to the ethical practices. They must have strong interpersonal skills, sound judgment, excellent communication skills, and evince a commitment to diversity, inclusion, equity, and justice.
