

Qualifications

Minimum qualifications include: (1) a J.D. from an accredited institution; (2) bar licensure in Indiana; (3) ability to pass both a state and national background check, as well as any applicable Department of Child Services background checks; (4) demonstrable interest in child advocacy, juvenile law, and family law.

Preferred qualifications include: (1) three years or more experience in either family law, juvenile law, or other adjacent child advocacy areas of law; (2) three years or more of trial experience; and (3) bilingual in Spanish and English is a plus.

Working Conditions

This job operates in a professional office environment, home office, and school setting. This role routinely uses standard office equipment such as computers, phones, photocopiers, and fax machines. This job is hybrid and could require some evenings and possible weekends.

Physical Requirements

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is regularly required to talk and hear. The employee may be required to stand, walk, use hands, handle, or feel, reach with hands and arms and may be required to drive.

Direct Reports

None

Salary and Benefits

Salary and Benefits:

- Starting Salary $70,000/annually
- Benefits include, but are not limited to, a generous leave policy, excellent family health insurance, a 401(k) plan and the camaraderie of a team of committed advocates for social, racial, and economic justice.

Please send resumes to the Kids' Voice of Indiana Supervising Attorney for CHINS/TPR, Josh Pollack, at jpollack@kidsvoicein.org by May , 2024.

Kids' Voice of Indiana is an equal opportunity employer that is committed to diversity and inclusion in the workplace. We prohibit discrimination and harassment of any kind based on race, color, sex, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, genetic information, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, or any other protected characteristic as outlined by federal, state, or local laws. This policy applies to all employment practices within our organization, including hiring, recruiting, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, leave of absence, compensation, benefits, training, and apprenticeship. Kids' Voice makes hiring decisions based solely on qualifications, merit, and business needs at the time.